

New and Finally able to log on!

Hello all other TTC Twin Families!!!

I am new to this site- However, I have been following so many of your stories!!! I had and may still be having a problem logging on to the site... So wish me luck that I can eventually log back on!

My husband and I will be actively TTC Twins next year at some point... If not the Fall of 2015 then in the Spring of 2016 and are hoping for Twins! I travel A LOT for work and having one pregnancy would be ideal... I currently have no problem O-ing, as far as I can tell, but have been on BC for many, many years. This will also be our first pregnancy.

My personal history of twins running in my family is small, but does in fact exist! (I was supposed to be a twin, but it was a "Vanishing Twin") and my Grandmother's Aunt was a twin. I am just trying to collect as much information as possible before we begin our journey as parents together.

I'm not sure where to begin, but I have so many questions about which supplement brands work best or are personal favorites? How much Folic Acid is too much? And if it is at all possible to "sway" twins? (B/G, B/B, G/G?)

I love hearing all the Success Stories, Protocol Stories, and would love to get some good vibes of 2 "sticky beans". Best of Luck everyone! May the odds be ever in your favor!
